1. Contextual Information

Academic Year	2020-2021
Number of Pupils on Roll	680	Total Catch up Budget:	£54000

2. Whole school gaps, trends and priority areas

Children and young people across the country have experienced unprecedented disruption to their education as a result of coronavirus (COVID-19). Those from the most vulnerable and disadvantaged backgrounds will be among those hardest hit. The aggregate impact of lost time in education will be substantial, and the scale of our response must match the scale of the challenge. Schools' allocations will be calculated on a per pupil basis, providing each mainstream school with a total of £80 for each pupil in years reception through to 11. As the catch-up premium has been designed to mitigate the effects of the unique disruption caused by coronavirus (COVID-19), the grant will only be available for the 2020 to 2021 academic year. It will not be added to schools' baselines in calculating future years' funding allocations.

Schools should use this funding for specific activities to support their pupils to catch up for lost teaching over the previous months, in line with the guidance on curriculum expectations for the next academic year. Schools have the flexibility to spend their funding in the best way for their cohort and circumstances. To support schools to make the best use of this funding, the Education Endowment Foundation (EEF) has published a coronavirus (COVID-19) support guide for schools with evidence-based approaches to catch up for all students. Schools should use this document to help them direct their additional funding in the most effective way.

The EEF (Education Endowment Foundation) advises the following: Teaching and whole school strategies • Supporting great teaching • Pupil assessment and feedback • Transition support Targeted approaches • One to one and small group tuition • Intervention programmes • Extended school time

From on-going assessment of children on return to school and during school closure, specific areas have been identified as school trends in gaps of knowledge.

Within maths, summer term objectives such as fractions and time were identified across school as objectives where depth of understanding was not evident. These have formed the basis of our recovery curriculum. Furthermore, greater depth reasoning across all strands will be a focus within maths lessons. We are using support from the DfE Ready to Progress materials to support teachers in adapting plans.

In writing, it has been identified that an area of focus needs to be within the children’s recall and use of discrete grammatical terms in the analysis of writing and understanding the terms. Therefore, a focus on writing lessons and the planning of the pathways will have a key grammar focus, as well as ensuring ambitious vocabulary is used and understood in context.

On return to school, it has been assessed that children’s reading fluency has been maintained during school closure which has been a positive outcome. Therefore, within reading sessions, we will continue to focus on the teaching and understanding of individual reading skills and how these build to the overall comprehension of the text that has been read. More so than ever, we will also provide a wide range of text types, as this would not have been so easily accessible to families during home schooling.
