

Reminder ; Author visit to our school!

We are very excited to announce that on the 22nd September, the author Alex Bellos is visiting our school! Alex writes for the Guardian newspaper and has written many books, including helping the footballer, Pelé, to write his autobiography. He has presented films for the BBC about football in South America and also enjoys writing about maths.

We are extremely lucky to, not only have Alex visiting us, but for him to be happy signing copies of his book for our pupils. Any books bought on parentpay prior to his visit will be signed by Alex on 22nd September after he has finished his talk to each year group.

Should you wish to purchase a book, please complete the form on parentpay with your payment. The final date for payment is Friday, 16th September.

If you already own any Alex Bellos books, please feel free to bring them along to be autographed on the 22nd September.

Thank you.
