

World Book Day 2023 and Read to Succeed Activity

READ!
TO SUCCEED!

As we communicated in January, we will be celebrating World Book day on Thursday 2nd March 2023. This year the theme is, 'You are a reader,' which as a reading school, we hold close to our hearts. We have lots of engaging reading activities for the children to participate in during the school day and would like the children to either dress as a character from a book or to show- off their knowledge of powerful vocabulary by dressing up as a word. This could even be from a part of the curriculum that they have been taught this year.

Read to Succeed!

We would like the children to participate in our competition. This year, for World Book Day, we would like our pupils to design a book in a jar. They can decide how to present a book of their choice by decorating the outside of the jar to show a part/ parts of a book of their choice and add extra items linked to the book inside the jar, but it is up to the pupils how to present this- let their creative juices flow! We would like all entries to arrive at school on Tuesday 28th February.

We are looking forward to celebrating World Book day and know that is it a day that many of our children look forward to.
