

Dear families,

Harmonize is back tomorrow, Wednesday 10th January! We have two rehearsals left before our big Young Voices concert at the O2 Arena on Friday 19th January. If your child is attending Young Voices, they will bring home a letter today with the final arrangements and two very important forms – these need fully completing and returning by Friday 12th January so that your child is able to attend the concert. Young Voices T-shirts have been despatched and will come home to those who purchased them as soon as we have received and processed the order. Tickets were transferred on Friday 22nd December via the AXS app, thank you to those who have already accepted the transfer. We have around 30 that have yet to be claimed by their owners, so please check your spam and junk email folders and accept as soon as possible. If you bought tickets you no longer need you still need to accept the transfer; we recommend speaking to other TMA parents who may be looking to secure one, but please be mindful that we are unable to secure tickets or assist with the process at this stage. Please see the Young Voices letter coming home today for more details about clothing and timings, as well as information on everything your child can and cannot bring for the visit. If you still have any questions remaining after you receive the final arrangements letter today, please contact Harmonize@tma.bucks.sch.uk and I will do my best to help.

Many thanks,

Em Marshall
